The Rabbit, the fourth zodiac sign, is gentle, amicable, sophisticated, and adaptable. The rabbit is the happiest sign of the zodiac, and the year of the water rabbit is predicted to be a year of hope.

The tradition of completely filling the table with food for this feast represents a year of abundance and wealth for our family and our friends.

Happy Year of the Water Rabbit!

Vintage notes from Neil

2011 is a good current drinking vintage for Burgundy

1999 was an exceptional year for red Burgundy. Wines just now coming into focus.

1987 was a mediocre year for red Burgundy. But Burgundy occasionally surprises you.

1975 was a year in Bordeaux that nobody ever thought would mature. Was dense and unyielding in youth. This wine has matured magnificently — yes it took more than 40 years.

I will pre-decant all wines that need it. Just pull the corks and pour. Be careful to watch for bottle variation between the two bottles supplied.
